9:00 am - Welcome and Opening Remarks

9:15 -10:30 am - Story Swaps for Everyone. We'll be splitting into small groups and taking turns telling any story that you are moved to share.

10:30 am-11:20 pm - Mini-Workshops, please choose from our selections below:

A) Hands-on Activities to Wind and Unwind the Story Path - Directions exist within the paths of stories - these are inclusive of the natural elements, and resourceful choices made by the characters. Using string, objects, and felt tangram shapes, we will explore Oral Tradition Stories: their invitation, surprise, mystery and resolution.

www.angelalloyd.com. Angela Lloyd MFA has been presenting and teaching storytelling in classrooms and other venues for 36 years, navigating the natural world of human beings in the classroom.

B) Your Personal Stories – Learn how to shape true life events into compelling narratives, how to mine seemingly ordinary memories for extraordinary gems. Diana Spirithawk is a storyteller, teacher, inspirational speaker, world-renowned artisan and dream ambassador/expert. She holds a doctorate of Spiritual Science, is an Amazon bestselling author, and for 30 years, has led healing story circles & ceremonies. Her mission is to tell mythic legends, folk, fairy and animal tales to heal & celebrate the Earth and her children, and the triumph of the human spirit.

C) Using Your Imagination In Creating Your Story I Need a Rock & a Stick . . . and the stick is optional . . .

Have you ever worked with kids, 'tweens, or adults only to discover that they've / we've lost touch with our imaginations? How do you unlock inner creativity with something as simple as a rock - a rock with a story hidden within?

Come play and imagine and create with Betsy. Betsy Mosier Is a long-time storyteller, and two-time President of the South Coast Storytellers. She never lost the creative child within.

11:30 - 12:30 pm Delicious Lunch (included in the registration cost). Raffle prizes announced.

12:30 – 1:20 pm “Got A Minute?” Concert of One Minute Stories

1:20 - 2:50 pm Concert by All Storytelling Groups

2:55 – 3:30 pm Mini Reports from All Storytelling Groups

3:30 pm Passing of the Candle. Farewell
